

Committee Profile:	Advisory Council of Past Presidents
Role:	The Advisory Council of Past Presidents (ACPP) shall serve as a resource to the President, Executive Committee, and Board of Directors, providing institutional memory and input based on their experience.
Members	All living past presidents of ISOQOL who are members in good standing are eligible to be a member of the council.
Representatives:	Two Past Presidents serve as Co-Chairs
Representative Selection:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Executive Committee will invite two (2) past presidents to serve as representatives. Diversity in demographics will be reviewed during the selection process. • Each representative will serve a two (2) year term with staggering term dates. • Eligible representatives are retired from service to the board for at least one year.
Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Each representative will serve as liaison between the President, Executive Committee, Board and the ACPP on issues for which input from the ACPP is requested. • Both representatives will serve on the Emerging Leader Award Judges Panel. • When an invitation is extended to the ACPP, a representative will participate at the ISOQOL board meeting.
Responsibilities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Representatives will act in an advisory role. • Review potential issues and questions presented by ISOQOL Leadership.