

Task Force Profile:	Proxy Task Force
Role:	The aim of the ISOQOL Best Practices for the Collection, Analysis and Reporting of Proxy Data for Patient-Reported Outcomes in Adults Task force (Proxy Taskforce) is to develop evidence-based guidelines to improve the design, collection, analysis and reporting of proxy assessment for adult patient populations.
Board Liaison:	I-Chan Huang, PhD
Chair(s):	Jessica Roydhouse Rebecca Mercieca-Bebber  Madeleine King - Advisor
Members:	Véronique Sebillé Ana Maria Rodriguez Claudia Rutherford Diane Fairclough Henrik Eshoj Matthew Cohen Andrea Ireland Angelos Kassianos Cindy J Nowinski Emre Yucel Katarzyna Wac Nadia Corsini Sara Perez Martinez
Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Participate in committee meetings and conference calls</li> <li>• Lead and/or contribute to task force projects</li> </ul>
Responsibilities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Systematic review paper outlining the state of current research and best practice for the collection, use and analysis of proxy reports for adult patient populations</li> <li>• Formal ISOQOL guidelines for collecting, analyzing and reporting proxy-reported data</li> <li>• Educational materials, including a workshop submission for the ISOQOL 2020 scientific meeting, summarizing the findings of the task force's activities.</li> </ul>