

Task Force Profile:	Strategic Collaboration Task Force
Role:	The Strategic Collaboration Task Force forge mutually beneficial collaborations with external organizations to advance the field. They will evaluate, define and pursue collaborative opportunities.
Goal:	A Strategic Collaboration Plan that defines and recommends collaborations for Board review and implementation of approved collaborations.
Board Liaison:	Chema Valderas, MD MPH PhD
Chair(s):	Sandra Nolte, PhD Albert Wu, PhD
Members:	Anne Klassen, DPhil Andrea Pusic, MD Bellinda King-Kallimanis, PhD Antoine Regnault, PhD
Responsibilities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Begin to define and develop a collaboration policy • Encourage suggestions for, and proactively research, potential collaborations with other organizations (clinical, scientific, etc.). • Develop a Summary Report, for Board review, that outlines for each target organization the timeline and action plan for developing contacts, defining terms and conditions of collaboration, operationalizing logistics, identifying indicators of progress, and monitoring progress against indicators. • Implement approved collaborations