

Unlinking LinkedIn from My Personal Profile

If you've attended a virtual conference previously, there's a chance you've used this platform and your previous information may populate. If you prefer not to have your LinkedIn account connected to your ISOQOL conference profile, follow the steps below.

- 1. Go to http://www.linkedin.com and log in.
- 2. Go to Me > Settings and Privacy

3. Choose the Account tab

Account	Privacy	Ads	Communications
How others see your profile and network information	How others see your profile and network information
How others see your LinkedIn activity How LinkedIn uses your data Job seeking preferences Blocking and hiding	Edit your public profile Choose how your profile appears to no engines or permitted services	on-logged in members via search	Change
	Who can see your email addre Choose who can see your email addre	ss ss on your profile	Change
	Who can see your connections	$	Change

4. Click Partners and Services on the left hand side.

Login and security
Site preferences	Partners and services
Subscriptions and payments	Microsoft	Change
Partners and services	View Microsoft accounts you've connected to your LinkedIn account	0 connected accounts
Account management	Permitted Services	Change
	View services you've authorized and manage data sharing	2 connected apps

5. Click on Permitted Services to see what companies you are allowing to access your information. There should be one there called Zerista Inc. Click the remove link on the right to break the link.

6. If you wish to connect your LinkedIn account and your ISOQOL conference profile, please try linking again through your ISOQOL conference profile.